

Employer Driven Insurance Services, Inc. to Begin Acquisition of BEN-E-LECT, an Industry Leading Third Party Administrator

BEN-E-LECT, California's industry leading TPA for HRA plans, and E.D.I.S. a top ranked TPA for stop loss plans have reached an acquisition agreement which will form one of the most robust TPA options in the Western U.S.

VISALIA, Calif. (PRWEB) May 09, 2018 -- Employer Driven Insurance Services, Inc. (E.D.I.S.), a provider of third party administration that focuses on helping employers of all sizes improve benefits and lower cost, announced today that it reached an agreement to acquire the block of business and assets of BEN-E-LECT, Inc., an industry leading third party administrator located in Visalia, CA.

This acquisition combines two successful teams, systems and product lines which will provide for the best client experience possible. “Our goal is to be the best option for an employer who is looking for relief from the rising cost of group health plans and the reduction of benefits,” states Stacy Morris, President. “E.D.I.S. is committed to providing the same high quality solutions and services that BEN-E-LECT customers have come to expect.”

“Since 1987, BEN-E-LECT has been the third party administrator by which all others were judged. It has successfully fought on behalf of small employers and their broker partners, taking on some of California’s largest carriers and government agencies. BEN-E-LECT has also become well-known for developing creative products to meet the needs of its clients consistently throughout the years. By joining E.D.I.S., the BEN-E-LECT clients will benefit from the increased staff, systems and a fresh new perspective,” states Mark Reynolds, founder of BEN-E-LECT.

With the addition of BEN-E-LECT’s dedicated staff and systems, E.D.I.S. is now positioned to deliver unparalleled third party administration to every client.
